Terms and Conditions

Lochside Arena aims to make competing your horse as enjoyable as possible. For this to happen, and for the benefit of everyone, certain rules must be adhered to. By entering the show, you are agreeing to the terms and conditions laid out below.

Lochside Arena shall not be liable for any claim for accident, loss or damage to competitors, onlookers, horses or any other animals, vehicles, property, equipment or any other item however caused. Competitors are to satisfy themselves they have assessed the risk factor in competing in the event. It is a condition of entry that each participant will satisfy themselves as to their own ability and that of their horse to ride safely and indemnify the organisers against any accident or loss, however caused.

Stallions must wear a Stallion Disc on their bridles and the correct coloured ribbon fixed in their tails, (red, white & blue). No person shall allow a stallion for which he, she or they are responsible as owner or rider to compete or be prepared to compete in any competition without taking adequate precautions to ensure other members of the public are not put at risk of injury.

Any person under the age of 16 must have parental consent to take part in classes.

Lochside Arena reserves the right to amend the schedule, prizes, sponsors, judges and rosettes.

The judges' decisions are final.

It is the entrants' responsibility to check that their horse/pony are entered into the correct classes before the show closes.

If an entry is submitted and Lochside Arena feels that the entry does not meet the requirements of the class entered (eg. a solid-coloured horse entered in a coloured class), Lochside Arena reserves the right to deny entry.

Any negative behaviour could result in being denied entry to the show and being removed from the show ground.

All images taken by our photographer will be available publicly on our Facebook page.

We have the right to extend the entry date if required.

Refunds will not be given. You are not guaranteed a rosette when entering. For any discrepancies regarding ruling or entering please contact lochsidearena@gmail.com.
